

Wallingford Elementary School

Special Interest Articles

Students Pass Benchmarks!

Rocky the Reading Squirrel

*Holiday
Reading Equals*

Holiday Fun!

The Reading Romp

Welcome to the Reading Room!

Students in Ms. Denton's Reading Room have been working hard all year. They have read many books and wrote many stories. The students have surpassed all expectations and met November reading benchmarks!

Dr. Milgrim invited all students to a party in the cafeteria. Refreshments will be served. Afterwards, children will conduct a Read-A-Thon!

Be there or be square!

Date:
Tues, Dec 5, 2006

Time: 2:30 p.m.

Place: WES Cafeteria

Rocky Loves to Read!

Well, Kids!

Guess who is coming to WES?!

Our friend, Rocky the Mascot!

He will be here to congratulate all the students who have participated in the Read-A-Thon!

Rocky will read with All first and second graders!

Bring your favorite book!

Rocky loves a challenge so be ready to read, read, read!

This holiday will be lots of fun for all!

Have a Wonderful Holiday Break!

Greetings to all the Parents and Family Members!

